Celebrating 25 Years of Community Dialog!

You Make A Difference ...

Thank you for considering donating an item to our upcoming gala on October 18, 2019.

Your gift invests in a community that:

- Listens profoundly to others' points of view
- Learns to expand their perspectives
- Talks with greater care about their own needs and wishes
- Acts in new, creative, collaborative, and productive ways

We are grateful for your support in making our community more peaceful and understanding.

Help Us Make A Difference! As An Organization That ...

- Maintains a professionally trained mediator corps of over 100 dedicated individuals
- Trains over 1,000 community members in conflict resolution skills
- Offers multiple continuing education opportunities
- Delivers and facilitates nearly 1000 family, district court, and foreclosure mediations
- Provides mediations and conflict coaching in the workplace
- Consults with businesses and organizations on how to collaborate and prevent conflicts

Your donation will allow the Center for Dialog & Resolution to continue helping the community find silver linings in times of conflict. Your contribution will keep our services affordable for those who need it and grow our capacity in mediation, facilitation, training and consulting services.

Your Acknowledgement

Your donation will be acknowledged in our auction booklet, by PowerPoint, verbally by the emcee and auctioneer, and for silent auction items through a written description.

Thank you for celebrating 25 years of helping to create silver linings out of conflict with our clients!
